

RESEARCH ARTICLE :

Decision making abilities of the SHG members in relation to entrepreneurial activities in Saurashtra region of Gujarat

■ Nidhi, Pushpa Kumawat and Diksha Sharma

ARTICLE CHRONICLE :

Received :

20.05.2020;

Revised:

22.09.2020;

Accepted :

09.10.2020

SUMMARY : The self help group (SHG) is generally an economically homogeneous group formed through a process of self-selection based upon the affinity of its members. Most of the SHGs are women's groups with membership ranging between 10 and 20. The result indicated that SHG women members had highest decision score (5.14) in the area of planning for children education followed by participation in social activities (4.92 score) etc.

How to cite this article : Nidhi, Kumawat, Pushpa and Sharma, Diksha (2020). Decision making abilities of the SHG members in relation to entrepreneurial activities in Saurashtra region of Gujarat. Agric. Update, 15(4): 308-310; DOI : 10.15740/HAS/AU/15.4/308-310. Copyright@ 2020: Hind Agri-Horticultural Society.

KEY WORDS :

SHG, Decision score,
Membership

Author for correspondence :

Nidhi

Krishi Vigyan Kendra
(A.U.), Athiyasan
Nagaur (Rajasthan) India
Email: aroranidhi156@
gmail.com

See end of the article for authors' affiliations